REFERENCE LIBRARY.

A complete list of Rules and Regulations can be seen on application.

(Extrakt from Rules and Regulations)

The Reference Library shall be available to literate members of the public resident in Colombo and over the age of 14 years and shall be open daily from 8 a.m., to 6 p.m., and shall be closed on Sundays (after 11 a.m.) on Wednesdays and on Wesak day. Christmas day, New year's day and Good Friday and the following Saturday and Sunday (Easter Sunday) and at such other times as the Committee may deem necessary for stock-taking, or other purposes, due notice of which shall be posted in the Library.

Persons desirous of using the Reference Library must on each occasion, before entering, inform the Librarian and obtain his permission and on such permission being granted sign the Reference Library Readers' Signature Book in which he shall enter his full name, age, occupation and address (both private and official) and such signature will be taken and considered to signify assent to these Rules and Regulations.

Readers will not be permitted to take down from the shelves the books they wish to consult but they will be handed to them on application to the Librarian. All books consulted, including those referred to in the next succeeding rule, must be returned to the Librarian.

Any book in the Lending Library, except works of Fiction, may be obtained for use in the Reference Library on application to the Librarian, but it must be given up if and when required for lending out.

NOTE. The purchase or consideration money is to be duly expressed and set forth in words at length, in or upon every such principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance.

And where any lands or other property, of different tenures or holdings, or held under different titles, contracted to be sold at one entire price for the whole, shall be conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts or parcels, by different deeds or instruments, the purchase or consideration money shall be divided and apportioned in such manner as the parties shall think fit, so that a distinct price or consideration for each separate part or parcel may be set forth in or upon the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance relating thereto; the duplicate of which shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the price or consideration money therein set forth. And where any lands or other property, contracted to be purchased by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, at one entire price for the whole, shall be conveyed in parts or parcels, by separate deeds or instruments to the persons for whom the same shall be purchased, for distinct parts or shares of the purchase money; the duplicate of the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance, of each separate part or parcels, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the sum of money therein specified as the consideration for the same. But if separate parts or parcels of such lands or other property shall be conveyed to, or to the use of, or in trust for different persons, in and by one and the same deed or instrument, then such duplicate deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration monies therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid, for the lands or property thereby conveyed.

And where any person, having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell to any other person, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser; the duplicate of the prinprincipal or only deed or instrument of conveyance shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the purchase or consideration money therein mentioned to be paid, or agreed to be paid by the sub-purchaser.

And where any person having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof shall contract to sell the whole or any part or parts thereof, to any other person or persons, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed by the original seller, to different persons, in parts or parcels; the duplicate of the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance, of each part or parcel thereof, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect only of the purchase or consideration money which shall be therein mentioned to be paid, or agreed to be paid for the same by the person or persons to whom or to whose use or in trust for whom the conveyance shall be made, without regard to the amount of the original purchase money.

And in all cases of such sub-sales as aforesaid, the sub-purchasers, and the person immediately selling to them, shall be deemed and taken to be the purchasers and sellers, within the intent and meaning of the provisions and regulations of this Ordinance relating to the ad valorem duties, on conveyances on the sale of property hereby imposed.

But where any such sub-purchaser shall take an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which shall be chargeable with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the purchase or consideration money paid or agreed to be paid by him, and shall be duly stamped accordingly; the duplicate of any deed or instrument of conveyance to be afterwards made to him, of the property in question, by the original seller, shall be exempted from the said ad valorem duty, and be charged only with the ordinary duty on notarial deeds or instruments of the same kind not upon a sale.

And where any lands or other property, separately, contracted to be purchased of different persons, at separate and distinct prices, shall be conveyed to the purchaser or as he shall direct in and by one and the same deed or instrument; the duplicate of such deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration monies therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same.

And where any lands or other property, shall be sold and conveyed in consideration wholly or in part of any sum of money charged thereon by way of mortgage or otherwise, and then due and owing to the purchaser, or shall be sold and conveyed, subject to any mortgage, bond or other debt, or to any gross or entire sum of money, to be afterwards paid by the purchaser, such sum of money or debt shall be deemed the purchase or consideration money or part of the purchase or consideration money as the case may be, in respect whereof the said ad valorem duty is to be paid.

And where there shall be several deeds, instruments, or writings, for completing the title to the property sold; such of them as are not liable to the said ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which the same may be liable, under any general or particular description of such deeds, instruments or writings contained in this Schedule. And where, in any case not hereby expressly provided for, of several deeds, instruments or writings, a doubt shall arise which is the principal, it shall be lawful for the parties to determine for themselves which shall be so deemed, and to pay the said ad valorem duty on the duplicate thereof accordingly.

When any deed or instrument, operating as a conveyance on the sale of any property shall operate also as a conveyance of any other than the property sold by way of Settlement, or for any other purpose, or shall also contain any other matter or things besides what shall be incident to the sale and conveyance of the property sold, or relate to the title thereto, the duplicate of every such deed or instrument shall be charged, in addition to the duty to which it shall be liable as a conveyance on the sale of property, with such further stamp duty as any separate deed containing the other matter would have been chargeable with.

PORT OF COLOMBO.

THE Port of Colombo extends from that of Galtura on the one hand to that of Negombo on the other, but it is only to the outer and the inner harbour at Colombo itself that shipping resort at present. The harbours are separated by a bar formed by the River Calany which lies across the bay and has only about 12 feet of water over it.

The outer harbour is a safe anchorage at all seasons. But from the middle of May till the middle of July when the S. W. monsoon is most violent and again from the first December till the end of January when the long shore-wind prevails, transport of goods between the shipping and the shore is sometimes liable to be interrupted for several days at a time. The most suitable season for delivering and taking in cargo is from the first of February till the end of April, which is happily also the season when the greatest quantity of Coffee arrives from the interior. The inner harbour is chiefly the resort of native craft and small country brigs, the former from October till April only, the latter all the year. It is safe all the year round although during the long shore-wind care must be taken to prevent getting foul or ashore.

THE HARBOUR OF TRINCOMALIE.

TRINCOMALIE, situated on the east side of the Island of Ceylon, contains a most spacious safe harbour, and with its small bays and coves is perhaps superior to any in India. Every part of the harbour is land-locked; the anchorage good for any number of Ships and of any burthen.

Back Bay from the 1st of April to the 25th October is also an excellent anchorage with from 10 to 5 fathoms water good holding ground, and sea quite smooth, so that the smallest boats may land. Fort Frederick forms the S. E. point of the bay, the Flag-staff there is in latitude, $8^{\circ} 35' 38''$ N. and long. $81^{\circ} 14' 52''$ E. A good light which can be seen 15 miles off is exhibited at the Flag-staff every night soon after sun set, it is 206 feet above the level of the sea, and serves to guide Ships by night clear of the rocks off Pigeon Island to the north and the shoals off Foul Point to the S. E., as well as to lead them to an anchorage in Back Bay. Pilots for the inner harbour are necessary, as there are dangerous shoals outside and inside; but Back Bay is quite safe. Vessels may lie within 1-3d of a mile from the Custom House in 5 fathoms water. The Custom House is opened for business on the 1st of April and continues until the 25th October when all is changed to the Custom House in the inner harbour.

TRINCOMALIE LIGHT HOUSE.

A New Light was exhibited at Flag-staff Point Trincomalie on the night of the 1st of October 1845 and is continued every night from sunset until day light.

The Lantern having a fixed light with two powerful reflectors, when hoisted, is 206 feet above the level of the sea. The Light can be seen 15 miles off from any bearing between Pigeon Island and Foul Point, comprehending an angle of 140 degrees.

The following remarks are published for general information:—

Latitude of the Light	$8^{\circ} 35' 38''$ N
Longitude from Madras Flag-staff.. .. .	$0^{\circ} 58' 22''$ E
Longitude from Greenwich.. .. .	$81^{\circ} 14' 52''$ E
Variation of the Compass	$0^{\circ} 59' 37''$ E

Foul Point bears from the Light S. 55° E. distant $5\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and the extreme of the reef off that point S. 60° E. nearly 5 miles.

Ships coming from the S. E. with a fair wind at night and having made the Light should on no account in passing Foul Point bring the Light to bear to the northward of W. N. W., that bearing will take a Ship more than half a mile to the northward of the reef and in not less than 14 fathoms water. If it is intended to anchor in Back Bay (which Ships may safely do between the middle of March and 25th October) and having brought the Light to bear W. N. W. they may steer directly for it rounding Flag-staff point close (the point being steep too) and anchor in 10 fathoms water with the Light bearing about S. b. E., small Vessels may anchor in 6 or 7 fathoms water with the Light bearing S. E. b. E.

From the Light the outside visible Rock off Pigeon Island distant about 9 miles is in a direct line with Elizabeth point bearing N. 15° W. Ships coming from the northward and wishing to anchor in Back Bay should be cautious not to bring the Light to bear to the eastward of south, that bearing will lead 2 miles to the eastward of Pigeon Island and nearly a mile to the eastward of the Lively Rocks. These Rocks lie half a mile to the eastward of Elizabeth point, having 4 fathoms water close to. When quite sure of being to the southward of the Lively Rocks, Ships may bring the Light to bear S. by E. and anchor in Back Bay as before directed.

After the 25th October the anchorage in Back Bay is not safe until the middle of March, as there is frequently towards the end of October before the N. E. monsoon sets in, a heavy swell with variable winds.

Ships should not attempt the Inner Harbour during the night except under most favorable circumstances, such as good moon light and having a person on board possessing local knowledge of the Harbour and the entrance to it. In such a case and being abreast of Flag-staff point the Light kept N. N. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. will lead clear of Chapel Rocks. The extreme Rock which is under water bears from the Light S. 18° E. distant 2 miles.

JOSEPH HIGGS, Master Attendant.

PORT DUES.

Two pence per Ton for entry Inwards and two pence per Ton for clearance Outwards on all Ships and Vessels arriving at or departing from any Port of this Island, except on any Vessel entering Inwards or clearing Outwards in ballast or when the cargoes are reported for Exportation, and ultimately the Vessel leaves the Port without breaking bulk, or taking in merchandize for the purpose of exportation. But no Vessel either at the time of entering Inwards with cargo, or at the time of clearing Outwards with cargo shall be subject to pay more than five pounds as Port Dues whatever may be the Tonnage of the Vessel.

Vessels employed between one Port and another of the Island are allowed to compound for Port Dues for 12 months at 1s. per Ton.

No Coasting Vessel is liable to pay Port Dues within 30 days from the date of the last payment thereof.

CARGO BOAT AND WHARF IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.

John Capper, Esq.—Manager.

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the Post Office and for revising the rates of Postage.

WHIEREAS it is expedient that the Ordinance No. 8 of 1836, entitled "For protecting the Revenue derived from the Post Office and for revising the rates of Postage," and the Ordinance No. 10 of 1841, entitled "To provide for the transmission of Letters to and from this Island by extraordinary Express," should be repealed;

1. It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof that the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1836 and No. 10 of 1841 be repealed, except so far as the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1836 repeals any Regulations and Orders of this Government and except so far as the Ordinance No. 10 of 1841 indemnifies the Postmaster General for charges made previously to the passing of that Ordinance.

2. And it is further enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person to transmit or convey any Letter or Letters from any part of these settlements to any other part thereof by any other means than by or through the Post Office Establishment, with the following exceptions that is to say, Letters from or to any place not being in the line of Road along which the Post travels, Letters concerning Goods or other Property to be delivered, such Letters being sent with or for the purpose of being delivered at the same time as the Property they concern, without hire or reward for receiving or delivering the same, Letters to be sent by any private friend or friends in their way, journey or travel, so as such Letters shall be delivered by such friend to the party to whom they may be directed, or by any Messenger sent on purpose for or concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof. And no person shall make a collection of such Letters hereby excepted, for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorised. And the following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a Letter, or to receive or collect or deliver a Letter, although they shall not receive hire or reward for the same, that is to say,

Common known Coach proprietors, their Drivers, servants or agents, except Letters sent by persons on any public line or road from one station to another where no Post Office is established between such two stations.

Owners, Masters or Commanders of Ships or Boats employed by Government for the conveyance of the public mails.

And every person transmitting conveying collecting carrying receiving or delivering any letter contrary to the provisions of this clause shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to any fine not exceeding One Pound for every letter in respect of which any such offence shall have been committed. And it shall be lawful to include any number of offences against this clause committed by the same person in one and the same information or complaint, and it shall be competent to any Police Court to take cognizance of any number of offences so included as aforesaid and to award in respect hereof the full amount of punishment to which the offender is herein declared to be liable on conviction.

3. And it is further enacted, that upon all Letters and Packets to be transmitted by or through the Post Office Establishment to or from any place within these settlements, there shall be levied the rates of Postage, according to distance, specified in the Schedule A to this Ordinance annexed.

4. And it is further enacted, that Letters transmitted by the Post shall be charged by weight according to the following scale, and that the several numbers of Rates of Postage hereinafter set forth shall be thereon charged by and be paid to the Postmaster General for the use of Her Majesty, that is to say,

On every Letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, one rate of Postage:

On every letter exceeding half an ounce and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of Postage:

On every Letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of Postage:

On every Letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of Postage:

On every Letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of Postage:

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of Postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce.

And all letters transmitted from one part of these settlements to another not exceeding a quarter of an ounce in weight shall be charged as one half a rate.

5. And it is further enacted, that His Excellency the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of these Settlements for the time being and the Honble the Colonial Secretary shall be entitled to send and receive all Letters and Packets free of Postage, except as is hereinafter excepted.

6. And it is further enacted, that the following persons not residing in Ceylon shall be permitted to send and receive all Letters through the Post Office of this Island free of Postage. The Governor General and Governors of the Presidencies of British India. The Commanders-in-Chief in British India and the Naval Commander-in-Chief, the Metropolitan Bishop of Calcutta, the Secretaries to the Supreme Government and the Secretaries to Government at the several Presidencies of British India, and the Governors and Colonial Secretaries of any of Her Majesty's Colonies within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company.

7. And it is further enacted, that One Penny only shall be charged on every printed Newspaper transmitted by or through the Post Office Establishment of this Colony, such Penny to be paid on putting the same into the Post Office when such Newspapers are sent to any place within or beyond these Settlements, and such Penny to be paid on delivery when such Newspapers are received from places beyond these Settlements.

8. And it is further enacted, that no Newspaper shall be sent by Post at the above rate of One Penny, unless the following conditions shall be observed:

First. It shall be sent without a cover or in a cover open at the sides.

Second. there shall be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it or upon the cover of it except the name and address of the person to whom sent.

Third. there shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such paper.

9. And it is further enacted, that the Postmaster General may examine and authorize to be examined any printed Newspaper or Official Gazette sent by Post and if any other paper or writing whatsoever be enclosed or concealed in any such printed Newspaper, or there shall be any communication or writing thereon or on the cover thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent or any other necessary direction as to its delivery or transmission, it shall be charged with treble the duty of Letter Postage which the person to whom the same is sent, receiving the same after notice thereof, shall be obliged to pay, or in case he refuses to receive it, shall be paid by the person sending, if he can be ascertained and be residing within these Settlements. Provided always, that all Official Gazettes shall pass free of Postage within these Settlements.

10. And it is further enacted, that all periodical Magazines and printed periodical Pamphlets, whether issuing from the press of this Island or elsewhere, shall if sent without a cover or in a cover open at the sides, be charged with a Postage of One Penny. Provided such Magazine or Periodical Pamphlet shall not exceed the weight of one ounce and if the same shall exceed the weight of one ounce then at the rate of One Penny for every additional ounce or fraction of an ounce, but no fractional parts of One Penny shall be charged, and the Postmaster General or person by him authorized shall at all times have the liberty of inspecting such Magazines and Pamphlets, to ascertain whether any other paper or communication be concealed or inserted therein not belonging thereto, and in case any other paper or communication be found therein or it be not sent open at both ends as aforesaid, full Postage shall be chargeable on such Magazine or Pamphlet as on a Letter of the same weight. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to oblige any Person to send any Printed Newspaper, Magazine or Pamphlet through the Post Office, but that it shall be lawful for all Persons to send the same in any manner most practicable or convenient. And provided further that the privilege of franking shall not extend to any Printed Newspapers, Magazine or Pamphlet transmitted through the Post Office.

11. And it is further enacted, that the transmission of Parcels by the Post shall only take place at such period or periods and to and from such parts of these Settlements, and at such rates or charges, and with such limitations as to their weight, size, and the nature of their contents, as shall from time to time by previous Advertisement in the Gazette, be directed by the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor for the time being.

12. And it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General or any of his Deputies to detain any Post Letter or Parcel suspected to contain any contraband goods, and to forward the same to the nearest Collector or Sub-Collector of Customs that he may ascertain whether the contents thereof are liable to duty. And the Postmaster General or one of his Deputies shall give notice to the party to whom such parcels sent to the Custom House may be addressed of their having been so sent and of the rate of Postage due on the same, which Postage shall be collected by the Custom House Officers and sent to the Post Office.

13. And it is further enacted, that all Letters received or sent by mail by way of Red Sea whether the same shall be received or sent by way of Bombay or Point de Galle or shall be brought to Ceylon by private ships, shall be charged with the Postage duty of one shilling each single rate, at whatever place they may be delivered or from whatever place they may be sent within this Colony and that no additional inland Postage shall be charged on the same—and no privilege of franking shall extend to Letters transmitted or received by way of the Red Sea, the public Despatches and Letters being bona fide on the public service only excepted.

14. And whereas the Postmaster General may already have been, or may hereafter be, directed to levy certain charges on behalf of Her Majesty's General Post Office in London under the denomination of Red Sea Postage, Foreign Europe Postage, prepaid British Postage, intercolonial Postage, or similar charge, it is hereby enacted that on such directions being published in the Government Gazette of this colony, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to levy such extra charges in addition to the colonial rates in the foregoing clause laid down.

15. And it is further enacted, that on every Letter which shall be brought to Ceylon by any Vessel not sent by the way of the Red Sea from any Port or Place beyond Sea, there shall be a Sea Postage of Four Pence, and on every Letter which shall be sent through the Post Office to any part beyond Sea, a Sea Postage of Two Pence, besides any Postage chargeable thereon for previous or subsequent transmission inland. And for the encouragement of the Masters or Commanders of Vessels, to deliver to the Post Office any loose Letters or Packets brought by any such Vessel it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to allow to the Commander or Master of every Vessel arriving as aforesaid the sum of Two Pence for each Letter or Packet and One Penny for each Newspaper not being enclosed in the Ship Mails of the General Post Office of the United Kingdom by him delivered or caused to be delivered, at the Post Office of the first port he may arrive at in these settlements.

16. And it is further enacted, that the Master or other Person in Command of every Vessel sailing from any Port of these settlements shall receive on board and convey all Mails and Bags of Letters which shall be delivered or caused to be delivered to him by the Postmaster General or any of his Deputies, and every Master or other Person in Command of any Vessel about to proceed to sea shall be and he is hereby required either by himself or his Agent to give notice thereof in writing to the Master Attendant and to hoist a Blue Peter at least 24 hours before the time of departure, and every such Master or other person acting contrary to the provisions of this clause shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Fifty Pounds.

17. And it is further enacted, that on the arrival of any Vessel off the Coast of Ceylon, the Master or person in chief Command thereof shall cause all letters on board to be collected and the first Port send the same on shore by his own Boat or by the Pilot Boat, or any other safe and convenient opportunity, in order that the same may be delivered at the first regular Post Office which can be communicated with and shall at such Port sign a Declaration in the presence of the person authorized by the Postmaster General at such port who shall also sign the same, and the Declaration shall be in the form or to the effect following that is to say,

"I A. B. Commander of the (state the name of the Ship or Vessel) arrived from (state the place) do, as required by Law, declare, that I have to the best of my knowledge and belief, delivered, or caused to be delivered to the Post Office, every Letter, Bag, Package or Parcel of letters that were on board the (state the name of the Ship)" And until such Declaration shall be made and produced, no Collector, Comptroller or Principal Officer of the Customs shall permit such Ship or Vessel to report, or to break bulk or to make entry in any port; and in case such Declaration shall be false, the person making the same shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine of Ten Pounds.

18. And it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Officer of Customs at any Port or place in these Settlements who in the due execution of his duty as a Revenue Officer shall discover any letters or packets on board any Vessel in any Port or place whatsoever contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, to seize and take all such letters and packets and to forward the same to the Postmaster General or his Deputy at such Port or place; and that the Officer seizing and sending the same shall be entitled to one moiety of any penalty which may be imposed and be recovered for any such offence.

19. And it is further enacted, that all letters or parcels directed to any place in India and transmitted by land shall be charged as far as the boundary of this Island, and that all letters or packets coming from India by land shall be charged as from the boundary of this Island.

20. And it is further enacted, that Money, Jewels, Ornaments, or other valuable Articles sent by Post, shall be received and forwarded at the entire risk of the persons sending the same, and the letter or packet containing the same shall be charged with the letter postage according to the weight thereof.

21. And it is further enacted, that all Letters which the persons addressed shall refuse to receive shall be returned to the Office from whence they were despatched, and the persons sending the same, if in these Settlements, shall be charged with the original postage, and all Letters addressed to persons who cannot be found at the place of address shall be returned (without charge) either to the person sending them or to the Office from whence they were first despatched, and in the latter case they shall be entered in a list to be exposed in the most public part of such Office, and, from time to time the list shall be sent to the Postmaster General to be published in the Government Gazette.

22. And it is further enacted, that any person opening a letter or envelope to his address shall be bound to pay the postage of the same, whatever may be the contents, but it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to remit the postage of any letter so opened, which shall appear to have been opened by mistake or sent maliciously to annoy or to have the person addressed charged with the postage thereof.

23. And it is further enacted, that the following classes of Persons may both send and receive Letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight by the Post, on their own private concerns, at a Postage of one penny for each Letter; namely,

Every Seaman employed in Her Majesty's Navy, or in the employ of the Government of these settlements, whilst such Seaman shall be actually so employed at any Port of this Colony.

Every Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer, Trumpeter, Fifer, and private Soldier in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, Artillery or Royal Marines, whilst actually employed in Her Majesty's Service in this Colony.

But the Letters of Commissioned Officers or Warrant Officers whether in the Army or Navy, or Midshipmen or Master Mates of the Navy, are not included in this Provision.

And with respect to Letters sent by any such privileged Persons the following Conditions shall be observed; that is to say, the Postage of such Letter shall be paid on being put into a Post Office, and upon such Letter shall be superscribed the name of the writer, and his class or description, in the Vessel, Regiment, Corps, or Detachment to which he shall belong; and upon such Letter there shall be written in the handwriting of the Officer having at the time the command of the Vessel, or of the Regiment,

Corps, or Detachment, to which the privileged Person belongs, the name of such Officer and the name of such Vessel or of such Regiment, Corps, or Detachment.

And with respect to Letters received by the Post by any of the said privileged Persons the following conditions shall be observed; the Postage of such Letter (unless sent from parts beyond the seas) shall be paid upon putting it into a Post Office, and it shall be directed to the privileged Person specified in the superscription thereof the Vessel or the Regiment Corps or Detachment to which he shall belong and the Postmaster General or his Deputy at the place to which such Letter shall be sent to be delivered shall not deliver such Letter to any Person except the Person to whom it shall be directed or to some Person appointed to receive the same, by writing under the hand of the Officer in command.

24. And it is further enacted, that the said Privilege shall not extend to any Letters liable to any foreign rates of Postage.

25. And it is further enacted, that any Letters received by the Post by any Commissioned Officer which may have been re-directed on account of the removal from one place to another of such Officer on public duty shall not be charged with any additional Postage on or in respect of such re-direction.

26. And it is further enacted, that if any person having the command of the Vessel, Regiment, Corps or Detachment and who is hereby directed to write his name and the name of the Vessel, Regiment, Corps or Detachment commanded by him, upon any single letter from any such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier, shall wilfully and knowingly write his name upon any such letter that is not from any such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier, and on his or their own private concerns only, such Commanding Officer shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds. And it is further enacted, that if any person not having at the time the Command of the Ship, Vessel, Regiment, Corps or Detachment, shall write his name upon any such letter, in order that the same may be sent at a lower rate of Postage than by Law established, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five Pounds.

27. And it is further enacted, that if any person or persons whosoever shall knowingly and designedly address a letter or letters to any such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier, which shall be intended for another person, or which shall be concerning the affairs of another person, with intent to evade the payment of the rate of postage by Law established every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds.

28. And it is further enacted, that if any person whosoever shall procure any such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier, to obtain the signature of his Commanding Officer to any letter or letters to be sent by the Post, which shall not be on the private concerns of such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier; or if any such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier shall himself obtain the signature of his Commanding Officer upon any letter or letters which shall not be from such Seaman, Serjeant, Corporal, Trumpeter, Drummer, Fifer or Private Soldier, and upon his own private concerns only, in order to avoid the payment of the rate of postage by Law established every such person shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds.

29. And it is further enacted, that no person shall be deemed incompetent to give evidence at the trial of any party for any offence created by this Ordinance by reason of any reward or benefit to which such person would be entitled upon the conviction of such offender.

30. And to the end that the Postmaster General and his officers may not be hindered in their respective employments, It is further enacted that no Postmaster General nor any person employed by or order the Post Office shall be compelled to serve on any Jury or Inquest, any Ordinance to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

31. And it is further enacted, that any person who being employed in any capacity in by or under the Post Office establishment shall secrete, steal, destroy, mutilate or break open any letter, packet, or parcel which shall have been put into the Post for transmission, whether any thing valuable be therein contained or not, or who, being so employed shall steal or take out of any such letter, packet or parcel, any draft, promissory note or any other contents whatsoever, or who shall not duly account for any money received by him on account of postage, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to transportation or imprisonment at hard labour for any period not exceeding seven years and every act committed by any person so employed as aforesaid in respect of any letter packet or parcel or any thing therein contained or of any money received by him on account of postage which by the Law of England would amount to an act of embezzlement shall be deemed and taken throughout this Colony to be an act of theft in respect of such letter packet parcel or thing contained therein or money so received as aforesaid and shall be punished as such.

32. And it is further enacted that every person employed to convey or deliver a Post letter bag or a Post letter who shall be guilty whilst so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness or other misconduct whereby the safety of a Post letter bag or a Post letter shall be endangered, or who shall collect or receive or convey or deliver a letter otherwise than in the ordinary course of the Post or who shall not use proper care and diligence, safely to convey a Post letter bag or a Post letter according to the Regulations of the Post Office for the time being, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

33. And it is further enacted, that every person employed by or under the Post Office who shall contrary to his duty open or procure or suffer to be opened a Post letter, or shall wilfully detain or delay or procure or suffer to be detained or delayed a Post letter, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction thereof shall be liable to any fine not exceeding Twenty Pounds or to imprisonment with or without hard labor for any period not exceeding twelve months. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to the detaining or delaying or opening by the Postmaster General of a Post letter returned for want of a true direction or of a Post letter returned by reason that the person to whom the same shall be directed is dead or cannot be found or shall have refused the letter or shall have refused or neglected to pay the Postage thereof.

34. And it is further enacted, that every person who shall fraudulently retain or shall wilfully secrete or keep or detain, or, being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a Post letter which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a Post letter bag or Post letter which shall have been sent, whether the same shall have been found by the person secreting, keeping or detaining or neglecting or refusing to deliver up the same, or by any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding Five Pounds or to imprisonment with or without hard labor for any period not exceeding twelve months.

35. And it is further enacted, that it shall be unlawful for any person whomsoever to detain a Post Office messenger whilst carrying the mails, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit, from one Post Office to another within these Settlements, and any person so doing, whether he take any letter from such packet or not, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

36. And it is further enacted, that in every case where an offence shall be committed in respect of a Post letter bag or a Post letter, or a chattel, money, or a valuable security, sent by the Post, the property of the Post letter bag or of the Post letter, or chattel or money or the valuable security sent by the Post, shall be laid when necessary to be laid at all in Her Majesty and it shall not be necessary in any information or complaint to allege or to prove upon the Trial or otherwise that the Post letter bag or any such Post letter or valuable security was of any value, and in any information or complaint to be preferred against any person employed under the Post Office for any offence committed against this Ordinance it shall be lawful to state and allege that such offender was employed under the Post Office at the time of the committing of such offence, without stating further the nature or particulars of his employment.

37. And it is further enacted, that whenever any person shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance the punishment or any one of the punishments of which shall be a fine it shall be lawful for any Court which would have authority to try such offence to accept payment on behalf of Her Majesty from such offender of the amount of fine to which such offender would have been liable on conviction upon presentation to such Court of a Certificate signed by the Queen's Advocate or some Deputy Queen's Advocate that such Officer is consentient to the receipt of such payment and no person having made such payment shall thereafter be liable for the same offence.

38. And it is further enacted, that all Duties of Postage payable by virtue of this Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to be debts due to Her Majesty and may be sued and recovered in such and the same manner and form as any other debt of the like amount due to Her Majesty and it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General or any of his Deputies or for any person authorized in that behalf by writing under the hand of the Postmaster General or of any of his Deputies to appear and represent Her Majesty in any suit or other proceeding which shall be instituted in any Court of Requests for the recovery of any debt which shall have become due under the provisions of this Ordinance.

39. And it is further enacted, that a share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed under this Ordinance and actually recovered shall be awarded to the informer.

40. And it is further enacted, that all powers and privileges vested in and all duties required to be performed by the Postmaster General under the Provisions of this Ordinance shall and may be exercised and performed--1850.

formed by any Deputy Postmaster General within such limits as he shall be appointed to act by or under the authority of the Governor.

41. And it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time with the advice of the Executive Council to make such rules as shall appear expedient for the transmission and payment of all Official letters and parcels and for regulating the hours during which the several Post Offices in this Colony shall be kept open for the reception of Letters Newspapers and Parcels and to direct that any or all of such Post Offices shall be open for the reception thereof out of such regular hours upon payment for every such Letter Newspaper or Parcel so posted out of the regular hours of such Extra charge as to the said Governor with the advice aforesaid shall from time to time appear expedient.

42. And it is further enacted, that any person sending and any Public Officer permitting to be sent by Post under colour or pretence of an official communication any letter paper writing or other enclosure of a private nature shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding five pounds or to imprisonment with or without hard labor not exceeding three months.

43. And it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful, whenever any letters or parcels may have been forwarded by express from one place to another within this Colony for the Postmaster General to charge such extra rates for the conveyance of such letters or parcels by express as may be approved of by the Governor and the Executive Council.

44. And it is further enacted, that for the purposes of this Ordinance the term Postmaster General shall mean the Postmaster General of this Island or person for the time being lawfully executing the duties thereof and that the term Letter shall include Packet and the term Packet shall include Letter and the term Newspaper shall include every bona fide Supplement to a Newspaper and the term Post letter shall mean any letter or packet transmitted by the Post under the authority of the Postmaster General and a letter shall be deemed a Post letter from the time of its being delivered to a Post Office to the time of its being delivered to the person to whom it was addressed and the delivery to a letter carrier or other person authorized to receive letters for the Post shall be a delivery to the Post Office and a delivery at the house or office of the person to whom the letter is addressed or to him or to his servant or Agent or other person considered to be authorized to receive the letter according to the usual manner of delivering that person's letters shall be a delivery to the person addressed.

45. And it is further enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of February 1846.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 28th January 1846.

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

IN pursuance of the 41st Clause of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1846. His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, is pleased to direct that the following Rules for the regulating of the mode of transmitting Official Correspondence through the Post be strictly attended to by all Public Officers, Civil or Military:

1. All letters sent from any Civil Public Office shall bear on the cover the signature of the Head of that Office, or, in his absence, of his Chief Assistant present, and from Military Offices, the signature of the Commandants, Heads of Departments, or Officers Commanding Regiments or Detachments; and every Officer, Civil or Military, so affixing his signature, shall be answerable that such letters are strictly on Her Majesty's Service; and all letters to a Civil Public Office shall be opened only by the Head of that Office, and in his absence by his Chief Assistant present; and all Military communications must be sent unsealed under cover to the Commandants, Heads of Departments, or Officers Commanding Regiments or Detachments, and all Officers Civil and Military are hereby strictly enjoined to return to the Post Office any private communication found therein, with the name of the party by whom the letter or packet was sent, that the 42d Clause of the Ordinance may be carried into effect. This Rule is to be held binding on Officers at outstations, with regard to the correspondence passing between them, as well as on Officers at the Head Quarters.
2. The Postmaster-General is hereby strictly enjoined to send to the Colonial Secretary all letters whether received for transmission from, or delivery at, the General Post Office, which he may suspect to contain private communications, that they may be opened by the Colonial Secretary, and dealt with according to the nature of their contents.
3. The only address henceforth required on letters to be sent by the Post, will be that of the Officer for whom they are intended, and the signature of the party by whom they are sent, and the words "On Her Majesty's Service." The stamp of the Colonial Secretary's Office will no longer be necessary, nor the signature of the Assistant Military Secretary.
4. No Official Packet, to be sent by the Post on any road where there are other means of transmission, shall exceed the weight of 16 ounces.
5. It is hereby explained that Official correspondence will only be held to be communications strictly on Her Majesty's Service. Letters addressed to a Public Officer on the concerns of the sender will have to be paid on being sent, and letters from a Public Officer on the concerns of the party addressed, will have to be paid on delivery; and all privileges of sending Parcels or Letters free of postage hitherto granted to private officers or persons are hereby cancelled.

By order of the Council,
W. C. GRAYSON, Clerk to the Council.
By His Excellency's Command,
J. EMERSON TENNENT,
Col. Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 28th January 1846.

* This has been since cancelled.

TRANSMISSION OF PARCELS.

IN pursuance of the 11th Clause of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1846, the Governor is pleased to direct that the following Rules for transmission of Parcels by the Post, be published for general information:

1. Parcels are only to be forwarded by the Post on lines of Road on which there are no private Establishments by which they can be conveyed.
2. Parcels are not to be forwarded on days when the weight of the mail would be thereby increased beyond the limit of 14lbs.; and the Postmaster General in Colombo, or any person authorised to act for him at any Outstation, is permitted to detain any Parcel till a day on which the smaller weight of the mail will allow it to be sent.
3. No private Parcel is to exceed 5lbs. in weight, and every Parcel is to be made up in a form which can be conveniently carried by a Post Office runner.
4. No Glass or Glass bottle or other Vessel containing liquid, or any article or thing which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious to the contents of the mail, nor any vegetables, fruit or other perishable substance, is to be carried by the Post.
5. The Post Office is not to be held answerable for Parcels containing money or jewels or any other article of value. Persons sending the same by Post will do so at their own risk.
6. In order that the conveyance of Parcels may not interfere with the revenue of the regular Post, all Parcels must be certified on the direction by the parties sending the same by Post to contain no letters, and every single letter found in any Parcel so certified will be liable to a charge of five Shillings, to be paid by the person sending the Parcel, if it be refused by the person to whom it is addressed; and the Postmaster General or any person acting in his behalf may call on any person receiving a Parcel which is suspected to contain a letter to open it in his presence.
7. No Parcel is to be franked; all Parcels below one pound in weight shall be charged as a double letter and an additional half rate of letter-postage, according to the distance is to be charged for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.
8. And to avoid all mis-understanding as to the nature of a Parcel, it is hereby explained that no parcel is to contain any written Papers whatsoever, or printed Papers partly filled up in writing, excepting legal documents unaccompanied by any letter, and superscribed as such.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 29th January 1846.

By His Excellency's Command,
J. EMERSON TENNENT,
Col. Secretary.

EXPRESSES.

UNDER clause 43d of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1846 the Governor and the Executive Council are pleased to direct that no charge for expresses shall be made on letters sent in mails by the Post, when the amount of the postage to be levied on such letters shall fully cover the expense incurred in transmitting the same.

2. When the amount of the postage levied on such letters shall not equal the expense incurred in transmitting them, an extra charge shall be levied sufficient to render the postage equal to such expense.
2. Expresses may be sent at the instance of any private party, when considered practicable by the Postmaster General or his Deputies, at a charge of 6d. per mile.

By order of the Council,—W. C. GIBSON, Clerk to the Council.

By His Excellency's Command,—J. EMERSON TENNENT, Col. Secy.
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, 29th January 1846.

POSTAGE BY THE "SEAFORTH."

UNDER the 43d Clause of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1846 regarding Expresses, the Governor and the Executive Council are pleased to fix the postage on Letters brought from any place in India by the SEAFORTH at the following rates, viz.

- One Shilling—for every Letter not exceeding half ounce weight
- Two Shillings—for every Letter not exceeding one ounce "
- Four Shillings—for every Letter not exceeding two ounces "
- and two Shillings for every additional ounce or fraction of an ounce.

By order of the Council,—W. C. GIBSON, Clerk to the Council.

By His Excellency's Command,—J. EMERSON TENNENT, Col. Secy.
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, 16th February 1846.

GENERAL ORDER.

Head Quarters, Colombo, 26th February, 1846.

No. 1.—With reference to the Ordinance No. 1 enacted by the Governor of Ceylon with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, under date 5th January 1845, the following Rules respecting Military Correspondence are published for the information and guidance of the Army.

All former orders relative to the transmission of Letters through the Post Office Department within this Island are hereby cancelled.

Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Forces whilst actually employed in Her Majesty's Service in this Colony may both send and receive Letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight by the Post on their own private concerns, at a postage of one penny for each Letter on the following conditions;

With respect to Letters sent by any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier the postage of such Letter shall be paid on being put into a Post Office, and upon such Letter shall be superscribed the name of the writer, and his class or description in the Regiment, Corps or Detachment to which he shall belong, and upon such Letter there shall be written in the handwriting of the Officer having at the time the Command of the Regiment, Corps or Detachment to which the privileged Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier belongs, the name of such Officer and the name of such Regiment, Corps or Detachment.

And with respect to Letters received by the Post by any of the said privileged persons the Postage of such Letter (unless sent from parts beyond the seas) shall be paid upon putting it into a Post Office, and it shall be directed to such privileged person specifying on the superscription thereof the Regiment Corps or Detachment to which he may belong.

The Postmaster General or his Deputy at the place to which such Letters shall be sent to be delivered is not authorized to deliver such Letter to any person except the person to whom it shall be directed or to some person appointed to receive the same, by writing, under the hand of the Officer in Command of the Regiment, Corps or Detachment to which such privileged person shall belong.

But the Letters of Commissioned or Warrant Officers are not included in the above provision.

The said privilege shall not extend to any Letters liable to any foreign rates of postage.

Any Letters received by the Post by any Commissioned Officers which may have been re-directed on account of the removal from one place to another of such Officer on Public duty shall not be charged any additional postage on or in respect of such re direction.

If any person having the Command of the Regiment, Corps or Detachment, and who is hereby directed to write his name and the name of the Regiment, Corps or Detachment commanded by him upon any single Letter from any such privileged Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall wilfully and knowingly write his name upon any such Letter that is not from any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier and on his own private concerns only, such Commanding Officer shall be Guilty of an Offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds; and if any person not having at the time the Command of the Regiment, Corps or Detachment, shall write his name upon any such Letter in order that the same may be sent at a lower rate of postage than by Law established, every such person shall be Guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds.

If any person or persons whosoever shall knowingly and designedly address a Letter or Letters to any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, which shall be intended for another person, or which shall be concerning the affairs of another person, with intent to evade the payment of the rate of Postage by Law established, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds.

If any person whosoever shall procure any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier to obtain the Signature of his Commanding Officer upon any Letter or Letters to be sent by the Post which shall not be on the private concerns of such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, or if any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall himself obtain the Signature of his Commanding Officer upon any Letter or Letters which shall not be from such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, and upon his own private concerns only, in order to avoid the payment of the rate of postage by Law established, every such person shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of Five Pounds.

Copies of the Ordinance No. 1 of the 5th January 1816 will be kept on record and for reference in the Offices of the Deputy Adjutant General, Deputy Quartermaster General, Respective Officers of Ordnance, Inspector General of Hospitals and Staff Officers of Colombo, Trincomallee, Galle and Kandy.

The following rules extracted from the Ceylon Government Gazette of the 31st January 1846 having reference to the Ordinance above alluded to are also published for the information and guidance of the army:

"In pursuance of the 41st Clause of the Ordinance No 1 of 1816, His Excellency the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council is pleased to direct that the following Rules for the regulation of the mode of transmitting Official correspondence through the Post be strictly attended to by all Public Officers, Civil or Military.

"1. All letters sent from any Civil Public Office shall bear on the cover the signature of the Head of that Office, or, in his absence, of his Chief Assistant present, and from Military Offices, the signature of the Commandants, Heads of Departments, or Officers Commanding Regiments or Detachments; and every Officer Civil or Military so affixing his signature, shall be answerable that such letters are strictly on Her Majesty's Service; and all letters to a Civil Public Office shall be opened only by the Head of that Office and in his absence by his Chief Assistant present; and all Military communications must be sent unsealed under cover to the Commandants, Heads of Departments, or Officers Commanding Regiments or Detachments—and all Officers Civil and Military are hereby strictly enjoined to return to the Post Office any private communication found therein, with the name of the party by whom the letter or packet was sent, that the 42d Clause of the Ordinance may be carried into effect. This Rule is to be held binding on Officers at Outstations, with regard to the correspondence passing between them, as well as on Officers at the Head Quarters.

"2. The Postmaster General is hereby strictly enjoined to send to the Colonial Secretary all letters, whether received for transmission from, or delivery at, the General Post Office, which he may suspect to contain private communications that they may be opened by the Colonial Secretary, and dealt with according to the nature of their contents.

"3. The only address henceforth required on letters to be sent by the Post, will be those of the Officers for whom they are intended and the signature of the party by whom they are sent, and the words "On Her Majesty's Service"—The Stamp of

- " the Colonial Secretary's Office will no longer be necessary, nor
 " the signature of the Assistant Military Secretary.
 " 4. No Official packet to be sent by the Post on any road, where " there are other means of transmission, shall exceed the weight
 " of sixteen ounces."
 " 5. It is hereby explained that Official correspondence will only be " held to be communications strictly On Her Majesty's Service—
 " Letters addressed to a Public Officer on the concern of the " sender will have to be paid on being sent, and Letters from
 " a Public Officer on the concerns of the party addressed will " have to be paid on delivery; and all privileges of sending parcels
 " or letters free of postage hitherto granted to private offices or
 " persons are hereby cancelled."

By order of the Council,

W. C. GIBSON,

Clerk to the Council.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. EMERSON TENNENT,

Col. Secy.

Colonial Secretary's Office.
 Colombo, 25th January 1846.

OPTIONAL PAYMENT OF POSTAGE ON LETTERS.
 SENT BY THE CONTRACT-STEAMERS TO INDIA AND CHINA.

WITH reference to the 14th Clause of the Post Office Ordinance No. 1 of 1846, Notice is hereby given that, under instructions received from Her Majesty's General Post Office in London, it will in future be optional with parties writing by the Contract Steamers from Point de Galle to the Presidencies of India or to Hong Kong, to prepay, or not, the British Packet Postage directed to be levied under the Treasury Warrant dated the 11th day of September last; but that postage must always be paid in advance on letters sent to any foreign country or possession.

The British Packet rate will be levied here on letters on which it shall not have been prepaid in the Presidencies of India or in Hong Kong.

The Colonial Ship-postage, chargeable under the 15th Clause of the above-mentioned Ordinance, will not in future be levied on letters sent by the Contract-Packets from Galle but only inland postage in addition to the British rate.

General Post Office,
 Colombo, May 6th 1846.

GEORGE LEE,
 Postmaster General.

GENERAL POST OFFICE, Colombo, 7th December, 1846.

THE subjoined copy of a letter from the Secretary to the General Post Office, London, is published for general information.

GEORGE LEE, P. M. Genl.

Circular.

"GENERAL POST OFFICE, London, 30th September 1846.

"SIR,—Much inconvenience and delay being frequently experienced, in consequence of parties residing in the British Colonies and other parts abroad (who may have occasion to complain of undue detention of their letters, or of such letters, being charged with a higher amount on postage than that to which they are liable), omitting to forward to this office, with their complaints, the covers of the letters so delayed or overcharged; the Postmaster General is pleased to request that whenever application is previously made to you on the subject, (and in all cases when you have an opportunity of recommending the proper course to be pursued,) you will point out how important it is that the covers should invariably be transmitted: as much time will then be saved in investigating the complaint, and material assistance will be afforded to this department in ascertaining where the error has occurred.

I am, Sir, &c. &c.

W. L. MABERLEY."

To George Lee, Esq. &c. &c. Ceylon.

Half the amount of Passage Money is required to be paid, on securing Passage, and the balance a fortnight before embarkation. Passengers not embarking after engaging Passage, to forfeit the deposit of half the amount of Passage Money.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

1. MEASURE OF LENGTH.

12	Inches	=	1 Foot
3	Feet	=	1 Yard
5 $\frac{1}{2}$	Yards	=	1 Rod or Pole
40	Poles	=	1 Furlong
8	Furlongs	=	1 Mile
69 $\frac{1}{4}$	Miles	=	1 Degree of a Great Circle of the Earth.

An inch is the smallest lineal measure to which a name is given, but subdivisions are used for many purposes. Among mechanics, the inch is commonly divided into rights. By the officers of the revenue, and by scientific persons, it is divided into tenths, hundredths, &c. Formerly it was made to consist of 12 parts, called lines.

Particular Measures of Length.

A Nail	=	2 $\frac{1}{4}$ Inches	} Used for measuring cloth of all kinds.
Quarter	=	4 Nails
Yard	=	4 Quarters
Ell	=	5 Quarters
Hand	=	4 Inches	Used for height of horses.
Fathom	=	6 Feet	Used in measuring depths.
Link	=	7 Inches 92 hds.	} Used in Land Measure to facilitate computation of the content, 10 square chains being equal to an acre.
Chain	=	100 Links

2. MEASURE OF SURFACE.

144	Sq. Inches	=	1 Sq. Foot
9	Sq. Feet	=	1 Sq. Yard
30 $\frac{1}{2}$	Sq. Yards	=	1 Perch or Rod
40	Perches	=	1 Rood
4	Roods	=	1 Acre
640	Acres	=	1 Sq. Mile

3. MEASURES OF SOLIDITY AND CAPACITY.

DIVISION I.—SOLIDITY.

1728 Cubic Inches = 1 Cubic Foot

27 Cubic Feet = 1 Cubic Yard

DIVISION II.—CAPACITY.

4 Gills	=	1 Pint	=	34 $\frac{3}{4}$	- cub. ins., nearly.
2 Pints	=	1 Quart	=	60 $\frac{1}{2}$	_____
4 Qrs.	=	1 Gallon	=	277 $\frac{1}{4}$	_____
2 Gall.	=	1 Peck	=	551 $\frac{1}{2}$	_____
3 Gall.	=	1 Bushel	=	2218 $\frac{1}{2}$	_____
8 Bush.	=	1 Quarter	=	10 $\frac{1}{2}$	- cub. feet nearly.
5 Qrs.	=	1 Load	=	5 $\frac{1}{2}$	_____

The four last denominations are used for dry goods only. For liquids several denominations have been heretofore adopted viz : For Beer, the Firkin of 9 Gallons, the Kilderkin of 18, the Barrel of 36, the Hogshead of 54, and the Butt of 108 Gallons. These will probably continue to be used in practice. For Wine and Spirits, there are the Anker, Runlet, Tierce, Hogshead, Puncheon, Pipe, Butt, and Tun; but these may be considered rather as the names of the casks in which such commodities are imported, than as expressing any definite number of gallons. It is the practice to gauge all such vessels, and to charge them according to their actual content.

Flour is sold nominally by measure, but actually by weight, reckoned at 7lb. Avoirdupois to a Gallon.

4. MEASURE OF WEIGHT.

DIVISION I.—Avoirdupois Weight.

27 $\frac{1}{2}$ Grains	=	1 Dram	=	27 $\frac{1}{2}$ gr.
16 Drams	=	1 Ounce	=	437 $\frac{1}{2}$ —
16 Ounces	=	1 Pound (lb.)	=	7000
28 Pounds	=	1 Quarter (qr.)
4 Quarters	=	1 Hundredweight (cwt.)
20 Cwt.	=	1 Ton

This weight is used in almost all commercial transactions, and in the common dealings of life.

The particular weights belonging to this Division are as follow:—

	cwt.	qr.	lb.
14 Pounds	=	1 Stone	=	0 0 14
2 Stone	=	1 Tod	=	0 1 0
6 $\frac{1}{2}$ Tod	=	1 Wey	=	1 2 14
2 Weys	=	1 Sack	=	3 1 0
12 Sacks	=	1 Last	=	39 0 0

Used in the Wool Trade.

DIVISION II.—Troy Weight.

24 Grains	=	1 Pennyweight	=	24 gr.
20 Pennywts.	=	1 Ounce	=	480 —
12 Ounce	=	1 Pound	=	3760 —

These are the denominations of Troy Weight when used for weighing gold, silver, and precious stones (except diamonds). But Troy Weight is also used by Apothecaries in compounding medicines, and by them the ounce is divided into 8 drams, and the dram into 3 scruples, so that the latter is equal to 10 grains.

For scientific purposes the grain only is used; and sets of weights are constructed in decimal progression, from 10,000 grains downwards to $\frac{1}{10}$ of a grain.

By comparing the number of grains in the Avoirdupois and Troy pound and ounce respectively, it appears that the Troy pound is less than the Avoirdupois, in the proportion of 14 to 17 nearly; but the Troy ounce is greater than the Avoirdupois, in the proportion of 72 to 73 nearly.

The carat, used for weighing diamonds, is $3\frac{1}{4}$ grains. The term, however, when used to express the fineness of gold, has a relative meaning only. Every mass of alloyed gold is supposed to be divided into 24 equal parts; thus the standard gold coin is 22 carats fine, that is, it consists of 22 parts of pure gold, and 2 parts of alloy. What is called the new standard, used for watch-cases, &c., is 18 carats fine.

5. ANGULAR MEASURE;

OR, DIVISIONS OF THE CIRCLE.

60 Seconds	= 1 Minute
60 Minutes	= 1 Degree
36 Degrees	= 1 Sign
90 Degrees	= 1 Quadrant
360 Degrees, or 12 Signs	= 1 Circumference.

Formerly, the subdivisions were carried on by sixties; thus the second was divided into 60 thirds, the third into 60 fourths, &c. At present the second is more generally divided decimally into 10ths, 100ths, &c. The degree is frequently so divided.

6. MEASURE OF TIME.

60 Seconds	= 1 Minute
60 Minutes	= 1 Hour
24 Hours	= 1 Day
7 Days	= 1 Week
28 Days	= 1 Lunar Month
28, 29, 30, or 31 Days	= 1 Calendar Month
12 Calendar Months	= 1 Year
365 Days	= 1 Common Year
366 Days	= 1 Leap Year

In 400 Years, 97 are leap years, and 303 common.

The same remark as in the case of angular measure applies to the mode of sub-dividing the second of time.

MISSIONS IN THE ISLAND.

PARENT SOCIETY

PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS,

INCORPORATED BY THE ROYAL CHARTER A. D. 1701.

The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts was incorporated by Royal Charter, in the reign of King WILLIAM III. A. D. 1701, for receiving, managing and disposing of such funds as might be contributed or the religious instruction of His Majesty's Christian subjects beyond the seas, for maintaining Clergymen in the British Colonies, Plantations and Factories, and for the general propagation of the Gospel. It has been engaged in its appointed sphere of duty for upwards of 141 years; and during a whole century, it was the only Missionary Society in connexion with the Church of England. In regard to its constitution, it is under the immediate controul of the Bishops of the United Church and is uniformly conducted on Church principles.

The Society has at present in its employment, Missionaries in the four grand divisions of the British Empire, viz., North America, West Indies, East India and Australia, and the whole number on its List amounts to 362, besides 230 Catechists and Schoolmasters; independently of all which its funds are made available for supporting Colleges and building Churches and Schools. It was in 1818 that the Society extended its operations to the East. Here it has more than 32 Missionaries in its service. It has, moreover, established a College at Calcutta, called Bishop's College, for the education of an indigenous Clergy, and the diffusion of sound and useful knowledge; and Grammar Schools at Madras for the instruction of the middle and lower classes.

CEYLON MISSION

OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

This Mission was established in the year 1818, and has five Stations, viz., Cotta, Kandy, Nellore, Chundicully, and Baddagamma. The affairs of the Mission are conducted by a Committee of the Missionaries in Holy Orders, who meet yearly at Cotta.
